Liz Tchou
Rutgers
Head Coach

“The Rutgers Field Hockey Camp has been designed to get your team ready for your upcoming season. Not only will we improve your hockey skills, but we will also stress the importance of competing, communicating and performing as a unit. The coaching staff’s philosophy will revolve around a positive teaching approach, to build your self-confidence by having you take part in individual skill drills, small games and full-field competitions. You will have a fun week with teammates and friends, while understanding how to make better decisions on the field.”
